Math/Computer Science Careers at NSA

The talk will include an overview on NSA, its history, mission areas, and career fields. There will be information on student programs and full-time employment to include hiring requirements and benefits. The talk also includes pros and cons of working at NSA, then some specifics on how math is used throughout the agency. If there is time, we can discuss career paths, advancements, and some unique opportunities that the agency provides to employees.

Friday, April 29 • 1:30 pm • Science 321